7. Guideline for preparation of the Financial Statements

The following steps should be followed.

- (i) In compilation of the Statement of Financial Performance, Statements of Financial Position and Statement of Cash Flow, information included in ACA-1, ACA-2, ACA-2(a) , ACA-2(i) , ACA-2(ii) , ACA-3 , ACA-4, ACA-5, ACA-5(a), ACA-5(b) and ACA-6 should be taken into consideration.
- (ii) Revenue collected by other Ministries/Departments on behalf of Revenue Accounting Officers should not be included in the form ACA-1 of the Statement of Financial Performance and such revenue should also be included in the form ACA – 3 considering as an imprest released by the Provincial Treasury.

- (iii) If the value arrived after deducting the total expenditure of recurrent , capital and other main ledger expenses from the value arrived by adding the revenue and other receivables to the total revenue is a positive value, that amount should be settled to the Provincial Treasury at the end of the year and if it is a negative value that amount should be received from the Provincial Treasury (such minus balances (deficits) can be shown when other Ministries /Departments make payments in cash to settle expenses incurred under relevant expenditure heads)
- (iv) Equivalent value of property, plant and equipment should be shown as reserves under net assets/capital.
- (v) Net value under the net assets and capital in Statement of Financial Position is calculated by deducting the value of Deposit Accounts from the value of Advanced Accounts of the Ministry/ Department. If this value is a positive value it will be shown as a value to be settled to the Provincial Treasury at the end of the year and if it is a negative value it will be shown as a value to be received to the Ministry/Department from the Provincial Treasury.
- (vi) The value to be settled to the Provincial Treasury or to be received from the Provincial Treasury according to the Statement of Financial Performance and the value to be settled to the Provincial Treasury as per the cash book will certainly be different and therefore an imprest adjustment account should be prepared to reconcile these balances.

Accordingly, the following transactions should be recorded in the debit side of the Imprest Adjustment Account.

- (a) The value of the revenue that are collected by other Ministries / Departments under the Revenue Head of your Ministry/Department and recorded in the monthly Accounts Summaries of such Ministries and Departments.
- (b) Expenditure incurred on the other Ministry/Department expenditure heads, as per Provincial Financial Regulations 155.

The following transactions should be credited to the Imprest Adjustment Account.

- (a) Expenditure incurred by the other Ministries/ Departments for the respective Ministry/ Department under Provincial FR 155.

Accordingly, the final balance arrived after transferring the amount of the Adjustment Account to the Imprest Account should be equivalent to the cash book balance of the Ministry/Department.

8. General Instructions

- 8.1 As per the State Accounts letter No SA/AS/AA/circular dated 12.07.2013 issued in relation to identification of non-financial assets and Northern Provincial Council circular no PF/AP/03/2017 dated 18.07.2017 issued in relation to recording of all non-financial assets of the Government in order to oversee the asset and cost management, assets were categorized and relevant codes have been given.
